

The Hero Strikes Again

The superheroes that never sleep...

Downed the 'Caped Crusaders' by many in the dentistry world, Cathedral Dental's amazing team shows no signs of stopping its mission to transform the smiles of so many in our region. The heroes of all things dental, and led by their fearless chief, Batman himself Dr Indy Singh, the team continues to provide amazing care for all those in search of perfect oral health. Renowned for its fantastic cosmetic dental work, including the likes of Six Months Smiles Invisalign, FastBraces and an entire range of whitening solutions to suit every lifestyle, the Hollywood Smile has never been so easy to reach. And... to add to the mix, the team completes your entire smile makeover with further talents in Botox, implants and Snap-On Smiles. Sitting alongside so many other hero traits, not to mention some of the best hygienist skills in the area, Cathedral Dental is determined to break the boundaries of usual dentist practices. Providing a caring, friendly and welcoming environment, it ensures that those who have crossed its doorway have never looked back. Offering a real range of clients, from children through to teenagers, adults and even grandparents, each and every visit is filled with laughter as the team does everything possible to make it one trip you won't forget in a hurry. When not saving the world from oral destruction, the team continues its passion ensuring that the latest technologies are available in the surgery, whilst looking for up-and-coming treatments to wow its patients... What's the saying... superheroes never sleep?
